

Casualty Facultative –Direct

We provide dedicated reinsurance solutions for a variety of third-party coverages. Our goal is to serve as a knowledgeable and stable resource, offering products that meet the needs of our clients and consistent service directly to our clients.

A Specialized Approach to Casualty Reinsurance

As a trusted reinsurer in the US domestic market, Berkley Re America's Casualty-Direct team offers excess loss reinsurance for casualty risks. Our professional and experienced underwriters focus on a direct market approach, working in a consultative manner to provide solutions for individual risks and programs. We are a knowledge-driven business that helps newer brokers and clients understand our products and how our consistent, long-term commitment can benefit them.

Coverage Highlights

Berkley Re America offers a broad appetite for casualty risks, with coverages designed to address a variety of third-party liability exposures. Our team provides in-depth, quantitative underwriting analysis for each submission, ensuring our solutions are robust and creative. We underwrite individual risks and programs, offering solutions for a diverse range of clients from commercial contractors to distributors.

Coverages

We provide excess loss casualty reinsurance for a variety of third-party coverages. This includes solutions for General Liability, covering general and products/completed operations; Commercial Auto, for automobile liability; Professional Liability, for professional liability exposures; and Umbrella and Excess, for policies and carve-out lines.

Industry Specific Expertise / Appetite

Our team brings specialized expertise to a variety of industries, focusing on providing tailored solutions for risks such as those in Commercial/Industrial Construction, Distributors, and High-Hazard Products. We also offer specific expertise for Liquor Liability and for operations involving Non-emergency Passenger/Patient Transport and Shuttle Buses.

Capacity

We are able to offer meaningful line sizes and are equipped to respond to various structures. Our capacity is designed to provide you with meaningful support for individual risks and programs, for both individual casualty risks and casualty programs.

Meet the Team

Spencer Purves, CPCU

Senior Vice President
Head of Casualty Facultative Direct

Contact

Why Berkley Re America

Our customers choose Berkley Re America because they value our integrity, expertise, and a dedication to their long-term success.

Financial Strength

We underwrite on behalf of Berkley member insurance companies rated A+ (Superior), Financial Size Category XV, by A.M. Best Company. In this, we offer a level of financial security that is paramount in reinsurance. Our clients can have confidence in our ability to be a consistent and reliable partner for the long haul.

Expertise & Consistent Collaboration

Our underwriters are seasoned professionals with a deep understanding of niche markets. We are not just responsive, but are proactive and flexible, providing thoughtful and creative solutions that are tailored to our clients' unique portfolios.

Efficient & Responsive Service

Our dedication to service extends to every aspect of the relationship. We provide efficient, high-quality claims administration that is both nimble and personal, facilitating prompt and accurate payments. This commitment is a core part of our mission to deliver value and build lasting trust with every client.

Contact Us

We believe that great relationships begin with great conversations. We are here to answer your questions and provide the knowledgeable, personalized service you need. Reach out to our team to discuss your reinsurance needs.

Contact Us